

A VILLAGE WITH NO PUB!

STOCKCROSS'S last pub, The Rising Sun, closed in 2017. The village needs a pub, it once had four, so for Stockfest 2018 we opened our pop-up pub, Inn on the Glebe. The Sutton Hall then created occasional pop-up pubs. We remain cautiously hopeful that we will eventually have no need to pop-up, with a reopened village pub!

SUNDAY 18 AUGUST

The Glebe Field will open at 11am for those who want to exhibit their classic cars or bikes and at 12 noon for visitors.

On the Glebe Field

12 noon, Inn on the Glebe opens

With Ranch Pizza in the afternoon

From about 12.30 pm

Cars on the Rare Breeds Tour return

All classic cars on show

From about 1 pm, Phoenix Brass

Playing between 1 and 4 pm, with breaks

In St John's Church, from 12 noon

Art exhibition: meet local artists including

Arran Miles, Tessa Kirby, Arty Pumpkin,

Sarah Moorcroft

An oral history presentation by S&SHA (Stockcross local history association): 'School Days'

Stockcross House Gardens open, 1-5 pm

The lovely gardens are just off the Glebe Field

In the Sutton Hall, from 1 pm

Try Pottery Painting - something completely different! A range of pottery to decorate and take home that day. Suitable for all ages and fun for all the family.

PLUS-

Artisan stalls

Tea and cakes, thanks to St John's Church

On the Glebe Field, late afternoon & evening

FAREWELL TO STOCKFEST 19

From about 5.30-8 pm, live music with The Doolally Experience: Joe Dooley and his talented young band, with everything from subtle acoustic to full-bodied electric!

INN ON THE GLEBE CLOSSES FOR 2019...

WHEN THE BEER RUNS OUT!

Rare Breeds Tour – is it for me?

This 70-mile scenic tour for classic and cherished cars is arranged by international rally organiser Mark Appleton. As well as the lovely countryside, an interesting coffee halt and treasure-hunt style clues will keep you entertained. For more information and to book a place please go to the dedicated website, www.rarebreedstour.co.uk

We are grateful for the support of

SPEEN PARISH COUNCIL
and
GREENHAM TRUST

Stockcross is on the B4000 Ermin Street, 2 miles from Newbury, 1 mile from the A34/A4 junction.

The Glebe Field, the centre of Stockfest and home to the Inn on the Glebe, is reached by car from Church Road, Stockcross, RG20 8LN. The Church, Sutton Hall and Post Office/village store are all very close.

Stockfest tickets in advance from:

www.stockfest.co.uk, or Stockcross PO/Village Store.

ALL ENQUIRIES: email info@stockfest.co.uk

STOCK FEST19

A COMMUNITY FESTIVAL
IN STOCKCROSS,
WEST BERKSHIRE
14-18 AUGUST 2019

www.stockfest.co.uk

FOR SEEKERS
PAINTERS
LISTENERS
DRIVERS
SCARECROWS

AND A VILLAGE PUB
9-11 AUGUST PLUS ALL
FESTIVAL DAYS

Friday 9 August to Sunday 11 August

WE BRING BACK THE VILLAGE PUB!

The INN ON THE GLEBE offers a full range of drinks with West Berks Brewery's favourite tipples – Good Old Boy and Mister Chubbs in draft – and chilled lager and cider, wines, spirits, soft drinks and nibbles. In the idyllic Stockcross Glebe there is parking literally outside the pub with seating both inside and out.

Friday 9 August, 6–10 pm or later

Friday was always village night, so come and meet your neighbours or those from further afield.

Saturday 10 August, 12 noon–2 pm and 6–10 pm or later

The Inn will be open at lunchtime for no other reason than to have a drink! In the evening there will be live music, and we'll also welcome back the excellent Ranch Pizza!

Sunday 11 August, lunchtime opening 12 noon–3 pm

Wednesday 14 August 10 am 12.30 pm approx

Summer ramble

Meet at the Inn on the Glebe for a walk through woodlands to Hoe Benham, returning via Wickham Heath. There are no stiles but there may be nettles and brambles along the way. Free event.

Wednesday 14 August 12 noon

The Inn on the Glebe will open

Wednesday 14 August 3 pm

Think you know your Archers?

Archers aficionado, social media guru and Academic Archers contributor Olivia Vandyk will bring fresh insight into the long running Borchester saga with a lighthearted presentation and discussion. Afterwards test your Archers knowledge with an Archers trivia quiz followed by tea and cake.

Sutton Hall, £5

Wednesday 14 August, 7.30 pm

VIVA VERDI! with Kennet Opera

Newbury's very own grand opera company presents a selection of Verdi's best-loved arias and choruses. Drinks for sale or bring your own. Sutton Hall, £10 online (£12 on door)

Inn on the Glebe open 12 noon–2 pm or later and 6–10 pm or later

Thursday 15 August 10 am– 2.30 pm

Printing Fun for Kids

An art workshop with Sarah Moorcroft in the Sutton Hall. Children must be accompanied by an adult. Dress for mess! £3 per child. Book online or call 0777 1511317 on the day. Numbers limited, so online booking recommended.

Thursday 15 August 10 am–4.30 pm

The Great Stockcross Quest

Collect your Quest sheet from the Post Office/store from 10 am and explore Stockcross following our fiendish clues. Find hidden gems and reminders of the village's past. On the way you'll see cards with letters – what word do they spell? For all ages – pet-friendly.

Thursday 15 August 2–4.30 pm

Paint a Landscape in watercolour or pastels

Spend a relaxing afternoon in an art workshop with expert tuition from local artist Tessa Kirby. Suitable for adults of all abilities. Sutton Hall, cost £15. Booking essential, book online. Bring your own art materials; some will be available on the day.

Thursday 15 August, competitors by 7.30 pm

Pub quiz at the Inn on the Glebe

Maximum team size 6 people. £2 per person. Team registration is available in advance – send us a message via the website. Last year we had more than 20 teams, but also do turn up on the night! Cash prizes for winners (£50) and runners up (£25) and a 50/50 cash raffle will run throughout the evening.

Ranch Pizza available all evening, and Inn on the Glebe is open from 6 pm until 10 pm or later.

Scarecrow Trail

Friday 9 – Sunday 18 August

COMIC CHARACTERS! That's the theme of Stockcross's 2019 Scarecrow Trail. From Friday 9 – Sunday 18 August, take a walk around our pretty village and follow the Trail by buying a map – from the Post Office/store during opening hours, or from the Inn on the Glebe. Only £2.50 per map, and it gives you entry to the Prize Quiz. Have fun!

Buy tickets – find out more

www.stockfest.co.uk

Friday 16 August 12.30 pm

Picnic with harps, Stockcross House croquet lawn

Bring a picnic and enjoy the music of Wessex Harpers while you eat. Tea and coffee available. Free event. In Church if wet.

Friday 16 August 7.30 pm

Classic film – The Lavender Hill Mob

One of the very greatest British films, an Ealing comedy with Alec Guinness, Stanley Holloway, Syd James, Alfie Bass and – bet you didn't know – Audrey Hepburn. Sutton Hall, £5, online booking available

Inn on the Glebe opening today 6–10 pm or later

SATURDAY 17 AUGUST, 10 am

Children's film – Paddington 2

Paddington takes a series of odd jobs to buy a present for his Aunt Lucy's 100th birthday. He finds the perfect present, only for his gift to be stolen...

Children must be accompanied by a responsible adult
Sutton Hall, £2

12 noon, Inn on the Glebe opens Evening, Jazz on the Glebe

Welcome back to Stockcross's favourite, the Apollo Big Band! Glebe Field open from 4pm, music starts at 6.30. Bring your own picnic stuff – gazebo too if you like!

£5 per car – no further admission charge

Ranch Pizza available all evening, and the Inn on the Glebe is open from 12 noon – 10 pm or later.